JLL teams up with Volatus Infrastructure

Commercial real estate advisor to provide site selection oversight and consultancy services to swiftly growing eVTOL infrastructure company

WASHINGTON, DC, July 21, 2022 - JLL announces today it has been retained as a consultant by Volatus Infrastructure, the leading eVTOL infrastructure company. The Wisconsin-based company recently announced plans to build the first permanent eVTOL infrastructure in the Americas in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

“We are thrilled to partner with Volatus as they enter the next step in their growth strategy,” remarked Chris Toth, Senior Vice President, JLL. “According to new research just published by The Insight Partners, the eVTOL aircraft market is expected to grow from $519 million in 2024 to $1.75 billion by 2028, a compound average growth rate (CAGR) of 35.6% from 2024 to 2028 and Volatus is at the forefront of delivering on this vision. At JLL we believe in partnering with developers of emerging and clean technology for a more sustainable world. JLL’s track record of employing data to drive location intelligence will make us a valuable partner and we believe Volatus is poised to continue their impressive growth.”

“Proper site selection plays a critical role in creating a successful and sustainable eVTOL infrastructure ecosystem,” said Grant Fisk, Co-Founder, Volatus. “Due to the unique flight characteristics of eVTOL aircrafts we must be mindful of where the infrastructure will be developed. Partnering with JLL ensures the ecosystem is successful and accessible to all.”
